

Just for Fun About Me!

Aaron Arredondo

Q: Where did you graduate & what is your degree?

A: University of MN – MEd and Certificate of Language Immersion Instruction

Q: How did you come to speak Spanish?

A: I was raised in a bilingual home.

Q: Where have you taught before?

A: My teaching career began in Salinas, CA and I have also taught in St. Paul, MN.

Q: Tell us about your family.

A: Happily married and father of three. Three is the magic number for us!

Q: What's your favorite sport?

A: I enjoy baseball and volleyball.

Q: Who has inspired you the most in your life?

A: Mrs. Best – 7th grade English teacher confirmed for me that I wanted to be a teacher. I received my undergraduate degree in English Literary Studies from Eastern Washington University.

Q: What's your favorite food?

A: Cheese enchiladas and rice.

Q: What's your favorite book?

A: La Lluvia de Oro, The Kite Runner, and Where the Red Fern Grows

Q: What's your favorite movie?

A: Dances with Wolves

Q: Do you collect anything?

A: Curious George memorabilia

Q: What did you (plan to) do this summer?

A: Went to Peru (visited Machu Picchu) and spent lots of time with my immediate and extended family.

Q: What has been your favorite travel experience?

A: When my wife and I backpacked in Europe – Santorini, Greece is my favorite spot in the world ☺

Q: What are your personal/professional goals for the next five years?

A: To continue to be the best Building Instructional Leader I can be by supporting the LILA staff.

Q: Any other interesting tidbits you want to share with the LILA community and the world?

A: